DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1, 2, 6, 8, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Collins (US Patent No. 4,558,516).

Collins discloses a packaging for a tool with a sharp edge comprising:

- A suspension device (belt, Figure 1);
- A protective sheath (15), wherein the entire sheath and suspension device are made in one piece (Figure 4);
- Means for supporting the tool (22) in different positions on the sheath, to the same degree claimed, including a first position (Figure 2) and second position (Figure 5);
- The sheath has a front side (closer to wearer's body) and a rear side, wherein the tool is supported on the rear side by a fastening device (14) in the first position, to the same degree claimed;
- The suspension device is arranged at an upper end of the sheath and on the rear side;
- An opening (in the side which forms the loop) by which the device can be suspended on a hook, nail or similar suspension means, to the same degree claimed; and
- A pilfer proof safety catch (14), which also functions as the fastening device.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

4. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Collins in view of Cleveland.

Collins discloses all of the limitations of the claim as discussed in paragraph 2 above except the suspension device including a clip arrangement. However, Cleveland teaches a suspension device (10) including a clip arrangement (16, 17) by which the device can be suspended from the user's belt. It would have been obvious to replace the belt loop arrangement of Collins with the clip arrangement of Cleveland. Doing so would provide an alternate attachment means that would provide easier removal from the belt.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 13-15 are allowed.

6. Claims 3-5, 10, and 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 3727

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
